

PEA RIDGE FIRE DEPARTMENT

CORE COMPETENCY DRILL

Fire Suppression—High Voltage Demonstration

DESCRIPTION AND EXPECTED PERFORMANCE: View the video given in the yellow section below and discuss the electrical hazards we face in our District. There is also, a PowerPoint slide presentation you need to view as a supplement to this training. You may do this activity as a group.

Length: 2 HOURS

REFERENCE: PRFD S.O.G.s for Department for response to utility and electrical emergencies. IFSTA Firefighting Essentials, current edition.

Equipment, Props, Information or Other Resources Needed: This drill requires access to a computer and internet. The video link is provided below.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIS CORE COMPETENCY DRILL

Watch the Video Below: High Voltage Demonstration Video

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2Xoyb9M5-EA>

Carroll Electric
Cooperative Corporation

Scenes involving High Voltage are becoming more common.

It is important that each crew member study and discuss potential actions you might take or any tactics you might utilize during these types of incidents. Consider where High Voltage utilities may be within your district.

Electrical Safety is Paramount. Use Extreme Caution and Ensure that you Follow Department Guidelines.

Electrical Hazards Can Be Found Where You Least Expect!